

English Standup Comedy • Almost Legal Alien • Stuttgart

Saturday 25. October at 20:00 - 21:30
Theater am Olgaek, Stuttgart

Live standup comedy from Munich's critically-acclaimed performer

Mustafa Algiyadi, a standup comedian based in Munich, brings his eclectic humor to the stage as he navigates the cultural clashes between his Libyan Arab roots and European life. The show dissects everything from bad habits and religion to meditation and coming of age tales with velvet sofas, all delivered with a semi-intellectual flair that adds to the severe imposter syndrome he has.

This show is perfect for anyone who has ever felt alienated, whether you're an expat trying to fit in, a local curious about the intersection of cultures, or just looking for a fun night out.

Press Reviews:

- "The funniest thing in the world." - Broadway Baby
- "Comedic prowess." - The Voice UK
- "Breath of fresh air." - The Play's The Thing UK
- "Mustafa Algiyadi does it perfectly," "Comedy that breaks down boundaries and tosses us out of our comfort zone, and done with vengeance," "Rivers of laughter," "A fearless piece of comedy that will shock and tickle you in a way no other show will." - Mumble
- "Huge presence." - Phoenix Remix
- "Finest traditions of compering." – Chortle
-

★★★★★ Audience Reviews: (full reviews could be read here)

- "Absolutely loved the show! It was both super funny and had plenty of really important messages. Five stars!" Mica - London
- "Refreshing, polished, and genuinely entertaining. We can't recommend it enough! Five stars!" Richard and Elenor - London
- "Mustafa's act is quite polished, and one can tell that he regularly performs on stage. He cleverly interacts with his audience and makes them all very much involved in the performance. We found ourselves laughing pretty much the whole time. A must-watch! Five stars!" Ben - Edinburgh
- "Really authentically funny. Well observed and highly recommended. Five stars!" Sarah – Brighton

About Mustafa:

Mustafa is the co-founder of Munich's first weekly and longest-running English Stand-Up Comedy Club. He has a rich background in improv theater, trained at the renowned Second City in Chicago, which adds a unique spontaneity to his performances.

Mustafa previewed "Almost Legal Alien" in London at the Museum of Comedy, further establishing his presence on the international comedy circuit. He has given tour support to comedy legends like Reggie Watts and Todd Barry, and he runs the English night at the comedy club of Germany's acclaimed comedian, Michael Mittermeier. In 2023, Mustafa performed to over 12,600 people across Europe. His recent debut at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival 2024 was a resounding success, with 25 performances that earned him a spot in the critically acclaimed "Top Jokes of the Edinburgh Fringe 2024" as featured in The Times and Edinburgh Evening News. He has also been featured in The Guardian, Sunday Post, and The Scotsman, and was highlighted as one of the top debuts to watch at the Edinburgh Fringe by The List UK and Edinburgh Evening News and performed at the prestigious Royal Albert Hall in London.

Upcoming Projects:

Mustafa is taking his new show on tour across Europe in 2025 and 2026, performing in more than 50 European cities.

The show will be held entirely in English.

Tickets:

- Online: From 13 Euro
- At the Door (No Reservation): 25 Euro

If you cannot afford the ticket for whatever reason, but still would like to come please email us at: info@mustafaalgiyadi.com and you will be issued a free ticket. We all need to have a laugh sometime :)

For more information, visit MustafaAlgiyadi.com or follow @mustafa_algiyadi on social media.

Join the journey—and Catch the rising star of European comedy.