Matt Bergman is a seasoned US comedian from Buffalo, New York, returning to tour Europe in 2025 on the back of his newest album & special release, Mostly Nice. Matt realized his love for comedy in his last year of college where he was pursuing a degree in criminal justice. After graduating he realized he was afraid of criminals and decided stand-up comedy was the way to go.

It was a wise move. Bergman is easily relatable and versatile, a skillset that has opened the door to TV appearances on Gotham Comedy Live, Comedy Central Live, a 2017 Dry Bar Comedy Special and his own 2025 special on Amazon.

Mostly Nice was called “really tough to purchase” by his mother who still doesn’t understand how iTunes or streaming works. It was first released as an audio album on Rhizome Records and can be heard on Sirius/XM and is now available in video form on Amazon.

Matt's 2025 Amazon special Moslty Nice is available here, if you can figure out your way around the geo-blocking.

His 2017 special Don't Cry On Your Wedding Day is available on YouTube.

Matt is joined by two local openers, Mars Münster (@marsmunster) and Mathis Ali Gonzalez (@mathisaliq), who both have around 4 years of experience as performers, and produce a variety of show formats in German and English in and around Frankfurt, Germany, and any city in reasonable driving distance.
