

Disturb the Vibe

Synopsis:

Elena Gabrielle—international comedy queen, chaos merchant, and all-around vibe saboteur—is back with her vibey-iest show yet: “Disturb the Vibe”

Get ready for vibe checks, vibe confessions, and vibe revelations as Elena Gabrielle flips the script, disturbs the vibe, and leaves you questioning everything you thought you knew about relationships, stereotypes, and the legacies we leave behind.

It’s time to embrace the chaos.

Not sure what to expect, check out one of Elena’s YouTube videos here: www.youtube.com/elenagabrielle

Elena Bio:

Elena Gabrielle is an Australian-born, London-based stand-up comedian and storyteller, celebrated for her witty, no-holds-barred approach to comedy. She captivates audiences worldwide with satirical takes on modern relationships, dating mishaps, and cultural observations—often infused with her signature musical flair.

Elena trained at the National Institute of Dramatic Art (NIDA) in Australia, specializing in musical theatre. Her diverse vocal range—spanning opera to rap—lets her seamlessly weave music into her comedic acts, with hilarious imitations of artists like Celine Dion and Lady Gaga.

She shot to international fame as part of the “Story Party Tour,” performing over 700 shows in 65 countries. Her solo tours, including “DIRRTY” (2021/22), “Addicted” (2023), and her latest show “OK!?” in 2024, have seen her headline festivals and clubs across the globe. Elena has headlined numerous international comedy festivals, including those in Cyprus and Hong Kong, showcasing her unique brand of humor to diverse audiences.

In addition to her stand-up success, Elena has achieved viral fame online, amassing over 40 million views on her YouTube channel. She has featured in global ad campaigns, such as Swatch in 2021, and opened for Iliza Schlesinger. In 2025, Elena made her Australian television debut on Channel 7’s new comedy show “Jim Jefferies and Friends.”

Currently based in London, Elena continues to tour internationally, sharing her refreshingly honest, musical storytelling and making audiences laugh about the joys and absurdities of modern life.