

Fitz Gessler is heading out on his first German tour; bringing his laid-back, sharp take on life in Germany to the stage.

Originally from New Zealand NZ with German parents DE and now based in Berlin, Fitz has become a familiar face across Europe's comedy scene, performing everywhere from small clubs to theaters. His mix of Kiwi and German gives a unique perspective rarely seen.

You might recognise him from his stand-up clips online (with millions of views 📺), where he shares funny, honest observations about German culture, dating, and family life.

His comedic style is warm, punchy and absurd; a loveable Kiwi adapting to his fast pace life in Europe.

He has performed with Don't Tell Comedy, Top Secret Comedy Club, The Comedy Store, and Fusion Festival — and opened for Yvette Segal, Jaboukie Young-White, and Tamer Kattan.

This show will have a strong focus on life in Germany with stories from his childhood and other anecdotes since then.

😊 What to expect:

A relaxed, fun night of comedy with plenty of laughs, relatable stories, and a fresh outsider's perspective on life in Germany.

💡 Why come along?

If you enjoy stand-up that feels personal, current, and easy to connect with, this is a great chance to see a rising comic in an intimate setting before he gets even bigger.
